BRILLIANTS WON AT HUNDRED TO ONE.

Turney's Big Colt Beat the 4-to-5 Favorite, Matt Wadleigh, by a Scant Nose.

A BAD DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Every Choice Beaten During the Afternoon-Jockey Bell Rode Bad Races on Aules and Ondenarde.

Brilliants, a 2 year-old colt, by Ornament-Landiady, owned by Turney Brothers, per ormed the semi-occasional trick of winning race at 100 to 1 haid against him at th Thir Grounds yesterday. Brilliants heat the 4-to-5 shot, Matt Wadleigh, by a more in a hard drive. Wadleigh was best, but A. Weber outrode Kelley.

Wadleigh shot to the front at the start, Brilliants followed a couple of lengths back. They raced thus to the last 100 yards. Kelley seemed to think that Wadleigh had it circled. He gave him a alovenly ride. Weber kept at Brilliants really rode a first-class finish. He over-powered Kelley and just did win. BROCKMILLER MADE "KILLING."

Brilliants was not played very much. C J. Brockmiller cleaned up nicely on him, place and show. Brockmiller tried to bet "Virginia" Carroll $30 against $2,000 on the Carroll hemmed and hawed and fenced and ducked and talked and made a noise, but would only take $5 of it. Brockmiller would not bet less than the $20 and did not get on straight.

"His last race behind Anne Davis was good enough to win here," said the happy Brockmiller as broken friends stood in line to borrow off him after the race. And so it was. But Weber, who was once a good rider, had not won a race in two years. He made Brilliants 100 to 1. Wener displayed a flash of his old form and really rode a first-class race.

If he can repeat that ride he is too good a jockey for St. Louis. Turney thought so ittle of his colt's chances that he be two on Hugh McGowan to show and not a cent or Breilberts. FAVORITES ALL BEATEN.

Favorites had a bad day. Not one in six races. Charley Bell rode two heaten choices Aules and Oudeparde. He rode very poor-Auges and Outcharde. He rode very poor-ly, though, admittedly the best rider at the track. He jammed Aules into three differ-ent pockets and had to break a strrup-leather pulling him up when in close quar-ters. The horse was two minutes the test, for he am fourth after it all. It was a terribly bad ride, in luci, the worst seen this year.

Then Oudenards, who opened at evens and Then Oudenarde, who opened at evens and went to 2s, bill out of the race around the three-sigues pole, and finished last of all save Monos, who broke down and had to be estreed off the track. Oudenarde ran the mile and one-sixteenth in 135. He can run a mile and one-sixteenth in 135. He can run a mile and one-sixteenth in 135. He can run a mile and one-sixteenth in 135. He can run a nile and the said that time. In justice to Bell it should be said that oudenarse seemed to be doing his best up the backstretch, and until he got lost among the horses. Then he has a bad knee, which, if he hit it, might stop him.

Sailtier wun the sprint handicap in a hard drive from Frank bell and Posseur. Poseur led by ten lengths to the stretch, then weak-reed. Bell was interfered with somewnath by Poseur and Meister, getting clear sailing, got up and wen a nice race in fine time.

ATLAS AND ORLEANS.

These Two Mares Look Like the Best Bet at the Fair Grounds To-Day. About seven horses have a cinch on the first race at the Pair Grounds to-day. Ciales will be a 6-to-5 shot. He belongs to Gumberts. He ought to be 10 to 1. Some legitimate 20 to 1 shot, like Governor Savers will about get the money. Beware of this Custus. Here is a nice kind of a handicap horse, in a good trainer's hands, fast, game, steady and of fine conformation. If Fickie Saint had out 100 pounds on her, she would about do.

But of course the Gumberts's horse will be favorite. The books will get the money on the sure thing. They will keep it. Sweet Dream, 6 to 5, to heat Hiee, Lunar, 7 to 10 to beat Virgie D'Or, Kisme even to beat Leenja, are some samples of the Gumberts favorites. It is about time that the players were sick of these abourd choices. When they do win the price is 3 points shorter than it should be.

ATLAS AND LYNCH.

Atlas and Peria will go well in the second, and Atlas is the gamest. Then Smith, Daniel's negro, is riding well these days.

J. W. O'Neill may run third.

The third is a common canter for Lynch. With Cadet with him. Lynch looks like a sure winner. He has early speed to clear the field. Brown Vall will go well also.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kid-ney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cure diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in regularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder in learners of the sense in the control of th

Biger ought Not that any one knows him, but they do know the others. The Wizard's saddle slipped up on his ears last time. He cannot beat Pathos doing anything over a mile, but he may do here.

ORLEANS IN THE SIXTH.

The last race looks like a good betting

one. Orleans's last two races have been excellent. They can scarce beat her. Deerhunter will like the distance and will run a good race. Virgie d'Or is about due for a good one.

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTER STRETCH. Jockey D. Austin Reinstated-Charley

Bell's Riding Under Fire. Jockey D. Austin, who was recently suspended by Judge Maginn for a bad ride on Hayes's colt Bugler, has been reinstated, after two weeks' suspension. If any other lockey is hereafter suspended by local judges, it will be rank unfairness and injudges, it will be rank unfairness and injustice if he is not reinstated as soon as Austin was. There never was a nastier-looking race, betting and running, than Austin rode. Bugler came out next time and showed it up in its true colors. Not a semblance of an excuse can be urged for it. In the past the turf editor of The Republic has been regarded as hypercritical. Every had race he ever saw, in betting ring or on race track, was harmless and sweet compared to the race for which Austin was suspended. To every owner, trainer, jockey compared to the race for which Austin was suspended. To every owner, trainer, jockey and horse the turf editor has criticised, save Bugler and those concerned in his bad race, he tenders a public apelogy, and will further make any proper public or private amenda. All the bad betting and hadly run races he has ever seen were good ones and true ones compared with the one for which Austin was suspended. If that was not a bad one, it is impossible that a bad one should be run.

Hayes, the contractural employer of Austin, is a turfman of reputation, means and power. Therein it all lies. All men are not held allke on a race track. At the back of the man of money and pull the Western Jockey Club bows. Drake, Corrigan, Hayes and other men of weight make it bend. Poor men of manliness must stand suspended. pended.

To every poor owner, to every poor rider and trainer be has ever criticised for run-and trainer be has ever criticised for run-ning furtive races, the turf editor of The Republic apologizes. He promises never, no matter how gross the offense may be, to criticise them again. In the future he will look only for the faults of the rich, the strong, the men with the pull. The racing associations, the judges and the Western Jockey Club will attend to the licking of the poor and weak.

Men who take keen interest in racing were rather disposed to criticise Charley Bell's riding yesterday. It was fierce on Aules, As for Oudenarde, he is such a horse were rather disposed to criticise Charley Bell's riding yesterday. It was fierce on Aules. As for Oudenarde, he is such a horse as Taby Tosa. He can run a mile and one-sixteenth with the weight he had up yesterday in 1:48. Yet he seemed to be doing his best up the back stretch, when he was running fourth and free of horses. He has a bad knee, and may have hit it and stopped, Bell is doubtless no saint. Neither is he a D. Austin.

Bell was ruled off by Judge Brady a year ago. Mr. Brady let him up again, when he deemed a year's suspension punishment and warning enough. Bell was making $150 a month up to June 1. Now he is making $150 a month and to year's suspension once was a good rider and whose earning capacity was cut from $1.000 a month to $15 a month, and who gets reinstated and able to earn $1.000 a month once more, pulhorses? It does not stand to reason. He gets nothing for pulling and everything for winning."

They say around the race track that it was vic Hughes who turned E. E. Farley, Tom Glenn and the Aimless-Sarah Black ringing case up. Hughes saw Farley buy Aimless from Sam Robert. Then he saw them bet on Sarah Black at Detroit. "Why that is not Sarah Black," said vie, when they paraded. "That is Aimless." It seems that Hughes was not in with it, and in revenge tipped Judge Murphy off; but Fatley and Glenn got the money. Now they say that Murphy is a mark for ringers. Murphy finds them out some times. Other judges may never know of it, then, before a man to W V. Conran, Bell's contractural employer,

"Maybe he did," said Conran, "Oudenarde ran a bad one. So did Mabel Winn when I had all my friends down for huge sums. I bet $600 myself and had friends bet $7.000. I was sure she would run in 114. She was beaten ten lengths in 1:15\frac{1}{2}. Did you hear me holler? No. I just worked my mare too much and killed her speed. It was my fault. I wanted to be sure she was not short and I overdid it."

NEEBURBAN SAVED THE TALENT.

Only Winning Favorite at Highland Park Captured the Last Ruce. Detroit, June 24.-The track at Highland Park this afternoon was very heavy. Stewards Discover That Winners Distance Is Five Rounds Farther of Jumping Races Were Selected by the Riders

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Sheepshead Bay Race Track, L. L. June 24.—The steeplechase bomb was exploded record battle, the affair being scheduled to here this afternoon. The stewards of the go twenty rounds at 150 pounds. This bout Jockey Club announced that, as a result of their investigation into the running of the introductory steeplechase here last Saturday, they had set down for life Jockey Wilon, one of the best known steeplechase riders in the world.

It was strongly intimated that the inquiry would lead to the suspension of at least five other jockeys.

Mystic Shrine might reach the winning post ahead. It was such a flagrant piece of jobbery that the spectators hissed and hooted.

it is now known that a representative of certain of the jockeys was playing Mystic Shrine in several New York poolrooms.

Although the men met two weeks ago, was unsatisfactory to most of those attending. Certain it is that Walsh had a majority in his favor, though Schreck had all the best of the closing round and had Andy hanging on blindly in the fifteenth. Walsh admitted before that bout that he was not in the best of shape for a hard fight. He was clearly short of work and went to pieces in the last round. To bring the men tegether under slightly different conditions the terms of to-night's fight have been altered. The weight of 150 pounds is four pounds less than in their previous meeting-a point believed to favor Walsh, the lighter of the pair. The stewards of the meeting, in conjunction with the stewards of the National Hunt and Steeplechase, are still prosecuting an investigation, which promises sensational developments.

It is now alleged that the stewards have information of the existence of a huge conspiracy for the purpose of "jobbing" and "fixing" steeplechases.

The story is that certain of the leaders rendezvous at Coney Island the night before a race and the winners are decided upon by caucus.

The identical same thing happened at New Orleans two years ago and was a feature of the old-time flat racing at Guttenberg and Clifton. The steeplechase scandal quite submerged the sensational setdown of Pittsburg Phil in the mind of the racing public to-day.

However that may be, he is up against a rather tough proposition in Curtain. The latter is an Eastern fighter with a good record in semiwindups, preliminaries and one or two main events. Montgomery is an unknown quantity, in spite of his draw with Rube Ferns, but he will have to be pretty fair with the gloves to win from his opponent.
